

LL.B. Programme

Course Outcomes

Semester	Name of the Course	Course Outcomes
FIRST	Course I : Constitutional Law- I	On successful completion of this course, a student will be able to- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1: understand the basic postulates of the Constitution like Constitutional supremacy, Preamble, Citizenship provisions, organization, powers and functions of organs of government and to nature of federal structure • CO 2: critically analyse significant judicial decisions based on fundamental rights and judicial activism • CO 3: realize their Fundamental Rights and its exhaustive analysis and importance of Directive Principles of state policy and Fundamental duties.
	Course II : Contract – I	At the end of the course, the student will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1: understand the basic concepts and terminology of the law of contract. • CO 2: explain the legality behind entering a Valid Contract. • CO 3 :identify the relevant legal issues that arise on a given set of facts in the area of contract law including e-contracts. • CO 4 :comprehend the system of formation and discharge of contracts and the role of courts in enforcing them. • CO 5 : assess how damages can be estimated.
	Course III : Law of Torts	At the end of the Course students will be able to- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : understand the principles of Tortious liability, the defenses available in an action for torts, the capacity of parties to sue and be sued and matters connected therewith. • CO 2 : evaluate the specific torts against the individual and property. With rapid industrialization inadequacy of the law to protect the individual is exposed. • CO 3 : understand the rights of consumers and enforcement of these rights by the Consumer Dispute Redressal Agencies and providing remedies under the law. • CO 4 :evaluate the provisions of The Motor Vehicles Act,1988.
	Course IV : Family Law – I (Hindu Law)	On successful completion of this Course, students will be able to – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : understand codified and uncoded laws Hindu Law • Co 2 :realize schools and sources of Hindu Law , concepts of marriage, divorce etc. • CO 3 :acquaint with legislative changes brought in the law relating to marriage laws, maintenance, adoption, succession, dowry etc.
	Course V : Criminal Law – I (Indian Penal Code)	After successful completion of this course a student will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO1 :understand the basic difference between criminal law and other kinds of laws, which will enable him to choose right forum for filing cases. • CO 2 :realize different types of offences and he can suggest to the legislators what type of offence is missing from IPC. • CO 3 : deal with criminal cases better as an advocate, which will enhance his practical realization
	6. English (For those who writes examination in Kannada)	On successful completion of the Course, students will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : nuances of the legal profession and the social responsibilities of a lawyer • Co 2 : strengthen with the basic features of the English language, vocabulary and their usage • CO 3 : learn drafting, translation skills and can become a competent advocate and judicial officer •

SECOND	Course I : Constitutional Law – II	On successful completion of the Course, students will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : understand Constitutional Parameters regarding the organization, powers and functions of the various organs of the government. • CO 2 : understand cooperative federalism, inter-State relationship, amendment and emergency provisions. • CO 3 : develop the quality of addressing Constitutional issues and analyse working of Indian Constitution.
	Course II : Contract – II	At the end of the course, the student will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : identify the essentials of specific contracts. • CO 2 : discuss the relevant legal issues that arise on a given set of facts in the area of specific contracts. • CO 3 : formulate oral and written arguments in response to a certain set of facts. • CO 4 : determine the legality of the transactions and also the rights and duties of the parties thereto.
	Course III :Labour Law – I	At the end of the course, a student will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :familiarize with the role of management and unions in the promotion of industrial relations. • CO 2 : the laws relating to industrial relations, working conditions and also learns the enquiry procedural and industrial discipline. • CO 3 :understand social welfare legislations and its role in upliftment of standard of living of workers. • CO 4 : examine the labour relation issues and its management and to acquire skills in handling employer-employee relations.
	Course IV : Property Law	On the completion of Course, students will able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :understand the concept of Property and general principles governing the transfer of property • CO 2 :understand the concept of Trust • CO 3 : know details of substantive law relating to particular transfers, such as mortgage, sale, exchange, gift is undertaken. • CO 4 :understand the concept of Trust and related Legal provisions
	Course V : Family Law – II (Mohammedan Law & Indian Succession Act, 1925	On the completion of Course, students will able to – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :understand codified and uncoded laws. • CO 2 : know about schools, sources, concepts of marriage, divorce under Hindu Law • CO 3 : understand legislative changes brought in the matters of marriage, maintenance, adoption, succession laws, menace of dowry etc.
	Course VI :Kanoonu Kannada	On the completion of this course, students will be able to- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :learn Kannada legal language • CO 2 :learn drafting of legal drafts in Kannada • CO 3 :develop Kannada legal vocabulary
	Course VI : Kannada Kali (For non- Kannadiga Students)	On the completion of this Course, Non-kannada students will able to— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :Understand Kannada language script • CO 2 :Develop skills of Kannadalistening and speaking

THIRD	Course I :Law of Taxation	On the completion of Course, students will able to— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :acquaint with basic principles of taxation • CO 2 :important features of Goods and Service Act . • CO 3 :understand different types of incomes, their taxability, exemption and deduction • CO 4 : resolve tax issues through their understanding. the impact of taxation on business transaction.
	Course II :Labour Law – II	On the completion of Course, students will able to— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1: acquaint with legal frame work relating to social security welfare legislations . • CO 2 :the concept of social security, its importance and constitutional basis • CO 3 : resolve labour welfare problems • CO 4 :working conditions and working hours of labours
	Course III : Criminal Law – II :Criminal Procedure Code, JJ Act & Probation of Offenders Act	At the end of the course all the students will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :Understand the procedural aspects of Criminal trials in all the courts. • CO 2: Realize the investigation process of all criminal cases. • CO 3 :Learn the methodology of how to defend and prosecute in a criminal trial. • CO 4: Learn procedure and implementation of Juvenile Justice Act and Probation of Offenders Act
	Course IV : Jurisprudence	After the completion of course, students will be able to- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :develop the quality of critical thinking among students • CO 2 :understand the inter relationship between various Law subjects • CO 3 :develop the quality of legal reasoning under the background of various social and cultural aspects of our society • CO 4 :interpretation of Laws according to the needs of our changing society
	Course V : Administrative Law	On the completion of this Course, students will be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : understand with triple functions of administrative authorities, their constitutional limits and statutory limitations, the procedure to be followed in the exercise of their functions and necessity to study in depth relevant remedies. • CO 2 : realize, consequences of administrative abuses and remedies therein • CO 3 :understand Principles of natural justice and its implications in administrative adjudications

FOURTH	Course I : Public International Law	On successful completion of the course students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : realize thorough and contextual realized edge of public international law doctrine, principles and the role of legal institutions, in the areas covered during the course. • CO 2: build up the capacity to identify contentious issues in public international law, and apply legal doctrine to solve problems. • CO 3 : realize critical perspective on the relationship between public international law and the politics of the international community. • CO 4 : realize reflective understanding of the significance of notions of justice, sovereignty and rights within the international legal framework.
	Course II : Optional I: Human Rights Law & Practice	After the completion of course, students will be able to – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :realize the basic Human Rights of every individual and how to implement them. • CO 2 :equip themselves with the procedural aspects of resolving the problem of violation of Human Rights at National and International spare. • CO 3 :develop the interest in students to be a successful Advocate in the field of Human Rights Laws.
	Course II : Optional I - Insurance Law	After successful completion of this course a student will be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : understand the importance of insurance in once life and to secure lives of his and his family members. • CO 2 : realize how the insurance works in reality and what adjustments he is suppose to make for e.g. financial arrangements. • CO 3 : deal with cases of insurance disputes better. Can encourage others to take insurance policies.
	Course III : Optional II : Banking Law	At the end of the course, the student will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : substantiate the experiential knowledge of the practice relating to banking. • CO 2 : find lucrative opportunities in the area of banking. • CO 3 : attract independent legal consultants in the field of financial and investment services which are emerging in the present scenario.
	Course III : Optional II: Right to Information	On the completion of course, students will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :learn how to achieve transparency in administration and governance through RTI Act • CO 2 :learn how to prevent abuse of power by the study of various judicial responses • CO 3 :learn procedure to apply under RTI and other related laws
	Course IV : Clinical Course – I: Professional Ethics & Professional Accounting	On the completion of course, the students will be able to – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :identify situations of professional dilemmas • CO 2 :recall and explain the principles of professional ethics • CO 3 :take appropriate decisions when faced with any dilemma of professional ethics. • CO 4 :interview and counsel clients in a professional manner • CO 5 :apply the basic principles of professional accountancy
	Course V : Clinical Course – II : Alternative Disputes Resolution Systems	On the completion of course, students will be able to- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :importance and implementation of Alternative dispute resolution systems which are important both at local ,National and international level. • CO 2 : realize each type of dispute resolution system and different styles involved therein, planning and execution • CO 3 : understand new emergence of dispute resolution system outside the Court • CO 4 : learn different skills involved in dispute resolution

FIFTH	Course I : Civil Procedure Code & Limitation Act	On the completion of course, students will able to – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :realize basic knowledge and procedure to file a Original Suit, Appeal, Review and Revision • CO 2 :realize the hierarchy of all the Civil Courts functioning in India. • CO 3 :prepare themselves for future court practice in civil side • CO 4 : learns about Law of Limitation provisions and its application
	Course II : Optional III : Intellectual Property Rights – I	On completion of study, students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : understand the substantive and procedural law with regard to IPR. • CO 2 : analyze ethical and professional issues which arise in the intellectual property law context • CO 3 :identify and analyze the intellectual property issues raised by the client and facts • CO 4 : apply intellectual property laws related to Patents, Trademarks, Cyber Intellectual Property, Geographical Indication and related International Conventions
	Course II : Optional III : Penology & Victimology	At the end of the course, the student will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : evaluate the reasons behind the crime and significance of Penology in the present society and theories of the punishments and its application in the criminal justice system. • CO 2 :analyse the various prison reform commissions and rules for treatment of prisoners, the various procedures and rules of correctional method. • CO 3 : exhibit the impact of national and international organizations dealing with victim compensation and victim assistance. • CO 4 : examine the patterns and impact of victimization in conventional crimes and also crimes relating to the weaker sections of the society. • CO 5 : examine the role of judiciary and the treatment of victims of crime.
	Course III : Optional IV: Interpretation of Statutes & Principles of Legislation	On successful completion of this course, a student will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :identify and be able to critically analyze relevant statutes and their provisions and To find out the judicial authorities • CO 2 :interpret the appropriate provisions using the rules of statutory interpretation; • CO 3 :apply statutory provisions to facts of the cases and communicate the interpretation, nature and effect of such statutory provisions to the stakeholders, such as clients and courts.
	Course III : Optional IV : Competition Law	On the completion of Course, students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : identify types of firm behaviour and market circumstances which engage competition law and policy, and Indian competition law governing this behaviour • CO 2 : explain the institutions and procedures involved in competition law enforcement, with an appreciation of the mechanisms of cooperation • CO 3 : analyse the interaction between public and private enforcement of competition law • CO 4 : reflect on the functions and objectives of competition policy, with some awareness of the economic principles underlying it
	Course IV : Clinical Course III : Drafting of Pleading & Conveyancing	After successful completion of this course a student will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : draft various pleading used in filing cases before the court like plaint, written statement, interim applications, affidavits etc. • CO 2 : draft various kinds of deeds used in day today life like Sale deed, Will deed, Gift deed, Power of Attorney etc. • CO 3 : effectively convey the case before the court and get the required justice the client.

SIXTH	Course I :Law of Evidence	On the completion of Course, students will be able to – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :to realize the importance of Evidence in Civil cases as well as Criminal Trials. • CO 2 :learn the purpose and of evidentiary value of Documentary and Oral evidence . • CO 3 :prepare to future practice by equipping them with the art of cross examination during court proceedings.
	Course II : Environmental Law	On the completion of Course, students will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :get sensitization towards human activities that adversely affect the environment and the need for regulation of such activities. • CO 2 :develop a thorough understanding of practice and procedure followed by various environmental law enforcing agencies/bodies. • CO 3 :able to pursue environmental litigation before the National Green Tribunal and assist the Tribunal as a researcher or in any other capacity. • CO 4 :able to assist industries and projects in obtaining environmental clearance and compliances with other environmental laws.
	Course III : Optional V : Intellectual Property Rights – II	On successful completion of this Course, students will be able to – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :understand law related to specific Intellectual properties like Copyright, Design, Protection of Plant varieties & Farmers Rights Law and Biological Diversity Law • CO 2 :realize International Treaties /Conventions on IPR
	Course III : Optional V : White Collar Crimes	On successful completion of this Course, students will be able to – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :understand spread of white collar crimes in various fields and relation between privilege, power & deviant behaviour • CO 2 :learn about changes made in the traditional principles of criminal jurisprudence while its application to WCCs • CO 3 :learns about various anti-WCC legislations and its implementation in India
	Course IV : Optional VI: Land Laws	On successful completion of this course, students will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : understand laws dealing with agriculture land. • CO 2 : identify various types of land and land revenue • CO 3 : working of various revenue boards and regulatory framework for tribunals.
	Course IV : Optional VI: International Trade Economics	On successful completion of this course, students will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 : understand new legal regime to regulate internal trade & development therein • CO 2 : learn historical perspectives of International trade, various related International Institutions functioning • CO 3 : understand technical barriers to International trade and insurance aspects of trade • CO 4 : realize laws governing finance & investment related to International trade
	Course V : Clinical Course – IV : Moot Court Exercises & Internship	On successful completion of this course, a student will be able to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CO 1 :practice before the Courts as he learnt advocacy skills through this Course. • CO 2 :draft written submissions and planning, organising and marshalling arguments in the given time so as to convince the presiding officer. • CO 3 : familiarize with the various stages of trial in civil and criminal cases, exposure to real court experience and skills of client interviewing. • CO 4 :understand the procedures before Advocate's Chamber, trial and appellate advocacy, legal regulatory authorities, legislature and Parliament, other legal functionaries, market institutions, law firms, companies, N G O s , local self government e t c . through Internship (each student enrolled in 3 year course will do for minimum 12 weeks and 20 weeks for 5 year LL.B. course)